

'Flipped begins with an irritation of teenagers and ratchets up to nerve-racking suspense as a life ebbs away.'

Jenny Hobbs, author of Thoughts in a Makeshift Mortuary and True Blue Superglue

'Grips you, transporting you into other spaces and lives.'

Caryn Dolley, author of The Enforcers and To The Wolves

In this novel about being seen and what is not seen, the previously hidden is revealed when the unexpected happens. In the soaking winter of 2010, two teenage girls set off to a party and disappear without a trace. Six years later, during a catastrophic drought, a young woman vanishes while on her way home from work. In the days following these events, those closest to the missing women are forced to question how well they really know them.

Tracey Hawthorne is the author of many non-fiction books, including an award-winning biography of the artist John Meyer. Her short stories have been published in magazines and journals locally and internationally. She works as an editor for mainstream publishers and private clients. Flipped is her first novel.

flipped

Tracey Hawthorne

flipped

Tracey Hawthorne

'A deeply moving tale and at the same time an unputdownable page-turner.'

Tony Park, author of The Pride and Blood Trail

